Jury Standards and Instructions

Instructions:

The submitted art or craft product must be handmade by you the applicant. Our jury will meet on a regular basis, and all entries will be replied to promptly. If you wish to ask about specific art or craft, you can call us on our message line at 781-246-9262, or email us with questions and digital photos, at info@wcna.org.

To apply:

1. Read the application and these instructions.
2. On the application form, select one of the two means for jurying your work. Please note that all photos must be close-up, color images of all the types of work you plan to show. To have the jury see your work you may choose one of the following:
 - request a jury review based on your narrative and of images shown on your web site
 - email digital photographs of your work to the jury at info@wcna.org
3. Complete the application form and mail along with a check for your booth fee payable to WCNA. Payment can also be made by Venmo at @WCNA-FBTL.

If you have been with us before we welcome you back, however we will jury every applicant every year. To ensure the quality of the show we reserve the right to reject applications or ask crafters to remove objects that are obviously not in keeping with our jury and show policy.

The jury maintains the right to limit the number of exhibitors within each category of craft to ensure a balanced mix of handmade items with the highest quality for the benefit of all.

Entries post-marked after the deadline will not be accepted. There will be no entry allowed for unregistered exhibitors. We appreciate the commitment made by early applicants and choice of placement on the common is solely first come, first served basis.
